WEED IDENTIFICATION GUIDE

American Burndown

Envlirin 280F/Avitrol (American Burndown) is a broad-spectrum herbicide rated at 280F. It is a soil-applied pre-emergent herbicide that can be used on both annual and perennial weeds in the United States. It can be applied to various crops such as corn, soybeans, and cotton.

Annual Leopardsedge

Aegopodium podagraria (Annual Leopardsedge) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Asian Hawkweed

Haplopappus giganteus (Asian Hawkweed) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Black Medick

Medicago lupulina (Black Medick) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Creeping Beargrass

Yucca filifera (Creeping Beargrass) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Dandelion

Taraxacum officinale (Dandelion) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Dichondra

Dichondra repens (Dichondra) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Facelis

Facelis capensis (Facelis) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Florida Betony

Gardinia tiliifolia (Florida Betony) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Garden Spurge

Euphorbia esula (Garden Spurge) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Goosegrass

Bouteloua gracilis (Goosegrass) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Gopherhead Lovegrass

Haplopappus gracilis (Gopherhead Lovegrass) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Kyllinga, Green

Kyllinga brevifolia (Kyllinga, Green) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Lambweed

Lambsquarters (Chenopodium album) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Lambsquarters

Chenopodium album (Lambsquarters) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.

Lambsquarters

Chenopodium album (Lambsquarters) is a second-year summer annual that is known for its purple and green leaves. It is commonly found in Europe and the United States, and is a common weed in gardens and lawns.